Mr. Ryan Martin
Professional Staff Member, Subcommittee on Human Resources
House Committee on Ways and Means
1129 Longworth House Office Building
Washington, D.C. 20515

Dear Ryan,

I would like to invite you to a two day educational site visit on August 21-22, 2017 to Cincinnati, Ohio and Louisville, Kentucky to meet with state and local officials and learn about their work to help families at-risk of being involved with the child welfare system who are also struggling with substance addiction. Casey Family Programs is the nation's largest private operating foundation focused exclusively on safely reducing the need for foster care in this country. We believe there is nothing more urgent than working together to ensure every child in this country has a safe, permanent family in which they can thrive.

I am attaching to this letter the draft itinerary for the trip including the presentations and issues that will be addressed during the day. Also enclosed is a completed Congressional Travel Certification Form.

The Centers for Disease Control (CDC) data shows that there were 52,404 total deaths in 2015, with 33,000 due to opioid abuse. We know that the number of children entering care as a result of parental abuse has steadily increased, and states have reported that 35% of entries into foster care were because of a parent's substance abuse. Both Ohio and Kentucky have some of the nation's highest death rates due to overdoses. According to reports, last year in Ohio parental drug abuse was a factor in the removal of more than half of children taken in custody. Understanding these serious challenges for families, Ohio and Kentucky have both identified and developed programs with the goal of keeping children safe and at home with their biological parents. The site visit will be a wonderful opportunity to discuss these important services directly with state officials and practitioners.

The trip will begin with a morning flight from Reagan National Airport to Cincinnati on August 21, 2017, and will return on an early evening flight out of Louisville to Reagan National Airport on August 22, 2017. Casey Family Programs will arrange for and cover the costs for the flight and all the transportation and meals while in Ohio and Kentucky according to guidelines by the respective Ethics Committees. However, any incidental expenses will not be reimbursed.

If you have any questions about this trip, please be in touch with Barbara Pryor at 202-467-1151 or bpryor@casey.org or Kristi Craig at 202-728-2018 or kcraig@casey.org.

Space is limited, so I look forward to hearing from you soon. I hope you will be able to join us for this informative visit.

Sincerely,
